

8th Newsletter DiTECT Chinese Partners' 1st year meeting

- The 1st year Annual Meeting among the 12 Chinese partners involved in DiTECT was held at Shandong Agricultural University and online via Tencent meeting.
- The Project Coordinator Prof. Nychas was first invited to give a presentation on the progress of the project and the collaboration status among the European and Chinese partners.
- The Deputy Coordinator Prof. Luo presented a summary of the research status of the project as well as the shortcomings that occurred during the first year's collaboration.
- An update of the progress on the Tasks and their contribution to the respective Work Package of the project was provided by each Partner in China.
- A general discussion about the following research details such as the installation and debugging of sensors in the industry followed.